You must disclose if you own or rent a property anywhere in Australia, including land, the right to occupy land and structures attached to land. You also must disclose if you have any other rights to property, e.g. right to drill, right to get property back under some circumstances.

You must provide the address of each property and the nature of interest, e.g. owner, tenant, trustee, beneficiary, freehold, lease, option to purchase.

You do not need to fill in this section if you are living at home with family.

You do not need to disclose an interest in a parcel of real property if you ceased to have the interest prior to becoming a councillor or designated person.

You also do not need to disclose an interest in a parcel of real property if your interest was:

- as executor of a will, or administrator of an estate, of a deceased person, and you were not a beneficiary under the will or intestacy, or
- as a trustee, if the interest was acquired in the course of an occupation that was not related to your duties as a councillor or designated person.
